Maestro payment available for Pixum Photo Books

Cologne, September 2010

Pixum has made Maestro payments available for its photo book orders.

After doing several customer polls en questionnaires, both in 2009 and in 2010, the general request of the Pixum customers was to implement Maestro as a payment method. Since the customers make the company, Pixum felt it was due time for this new feature.

With Maestro being the most used and frequently chosen payment method in the UK, Pixum is now well equipped to process all photo book orders leading up to Christmas. Maestro payments are currently only possible for photo book orders, not for online shop orders.

Pixum currently offers credit and debit payment methods for photo book orders and credit payment methods for online shop orders.
